The Beautiful Princess

By Jordan Fawcett

Once upon a time! Not too long ago, a young handsome man met a young beautiful lady! Now this young handsome man was Prince of a huge kingdom named Grey Highlands, and his name was Prince Dave. Prince Dave was great with numbers, amazing at baseball and other sports.

Although he could get annoying with his sarcasm and funny faces, he was still a great Prince.

One night, when Prince Dave was on a date with the young beautiful lady's sister, he met the young lady her name was Debbie. Debbie was amazing at dance; also was smart, loving, caring, and very enthusiastic! Soon enough Prince Dave started to like her. After a couple of dates and getting to know each other, it was love at first sight. Prince Dave moved out of his house and built a house with Debbie in beautiful Beaver Valley!

On August 6th 1988, Prince Dave and Debbie shared their love with family and friends, when Debbie became, Princess Debbie Fawcett. They lived in their house for 4 years with just family and close friends for company, until September 30th 1992, Princess Debbie had a baby boy. This baby boy's name was Andrew Vernon Fawcett. Andrew was a baby with incredible talent. He could walk (but not very straight) but he had very curly hair that grew, and grew every second of each day.

Prince Dave and Princess Debbie lived a great life style! They skied in the winter and taught Andrew and Jordan to play sports in the summer! Everything was going great until November 2004, Prince Dave was asked to be Prince of all Grey County, for a year. Grey County was a much bigger kingdom than Grey Highlands. Well, Prince Dave thought, and thought about it. He knew that his family would have to make a big sacrifice, to let him do this. But his family agreed to it, and said that they would do anything for him. Prince Dave accepted the offer and had great experiences.

After Prince Dave was done being Prince of Grey County, everything went back to where it was before. Andrew was in his skiing competitions, and Jordan was in ski racing.
